

Employee Benefit News from Chile

The government is studying a new health reform. There is nothing defined so far, but one of the issues under discussion is a single base plan for all Chilean citizens. People could then buy any additional plan.

The President, Mrs. Michelle Bachelet, has announced that pregnancy will not be considered a pre-existing case for a health insurance.